- The student will read the text as the teacher points to each word.
- If the student has difficulty with a word – keep pointing to the word. This gives the student time to self-correct or try again. If the student is still having difficulty encourage the student to sound out the individual phonemes, blend the sounds, then read the word again.
- If each child has a printed book then slowly progress through the pages ‘reading out loud’ as described in Step 2. The student will read the text as the teacher points to each word. If the student has difficulty with a word – keep pointing to the word. This gives the student time to self-correct or try again. If the student is still having difficulty encourage the student to sound out the individual phonemes, blend the sounds, then read the word again.
- If the word is a ‘Sight Word’ reinforce the word is to be recognized as a ‘whole’.

STEP 6:

Ask the student how many capital ‘T’ were in the story and where is the capital ‘T’ found in the story.

Capital Letters: A new ‘Capital Letter’ is introduced as a ‘Proper Noun’.

A ‘Proper Noun’ is a name of a person, town, city or country. For example in this story the name of the man is: D a n. ‘Dan’ is a ‘Proper Noun’ and begins with a capital letter.

Rhyming

The rhyming further reinforces the sounds, by showing the auditory and visual similarities and also discriminating between the different sounds.

- Ask the student if they can pick out the rhyming words in the text.
- Ask the student to identify the highlighted sound in the text (short vowel ‘a’) and the new (short vowel ‘e’) found in ‘wet’.

STEP 8:

Now start the Comprehension Questions, slowly read each question, then give the student time to answer verbally or in a written form.

- If you have a large screen with the images projected onto it, scroll slowly to each question.
- If each child has a printed book then slowly progress through the questions.

Comprehension Questions

The comprehension component for each story tests the student’s critical reading skills.

If the student does not remember the answers, they are encouraged to re-read the story and then continue the comprehension questions.

STEP 9:

Complete the sentences with these words. This exercise reinforces the student’s critical reading skills. The sounds and blends found in this story are practiced in this exercise.

STEP 10:

Say, Cover, Spell, Write and Check. This exercise asks the student to say the word (identifying word sounds), then cover the word (to commit word to memory by visualization), spell it out loud (to highlight sounds and blends of letter combinations), then write it (to practice spelling).

Dan _____ man _____ ran _____ and _____ wet _____

STEP 11:

Add 'vc' (vowel consonant) 'an' to make words:

This reinforces the 'short vowel' sound and vc combination.
